Matthew 5:4

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted” - Matthew 5:4 (NIV)

Paradox - A seemingly contradictory statement that may nonetheless be true:

I. The Definition – What does it mean to mourn in this context?

A. What it's not...

This mourning is not simply, sorrow over temporary distress or adversity. John 16:33

This type of mourning is not talking about the chronic complainer either. Philippians 2:14

B. So, what does this mean then? 2 Corinthians 7:10

II. Application – How do we apply this concept to our lives?

A. We see more clearly the perfection of Christ. Romans 7:18-25

B. This mourning allows us to see more completely the cost of sin.

C. When we honestly see our own sin – we can then see the wholeness we can have in Christ. And we quit settling for anything less.

III. The Satisfaction.

A. We are comforted by seeing how God sees us. Galatians 3:26-27; 1 John 1:9

B. God does supply comfort for this life too. Psalms 34:18;

There is comfort in God's word. Psalms 119:52

There is the comfort of God's people. 2 Corinthians 1:3-4

The greatest comfort though is the Holy Spirit. John 14:16; Romans 15:13

“He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.” - Revelation 21:4 (NIV)
