Fahrenheit 212 - The Challenge

John 13:1-17

I. The Setting.

II. The challenge. John 13:12-17

- A. A clear mandate - If we call Him Master, then we must serve. The bottom line is this: if we are not serving, He is not truly our Master.
- B. A clear model – Jesus showed us how to serve and told us to follow.
- C. A clear motive - obedience brings blessing.

III. What does this act of service reveal to us and about us?

- A. Humble service shows who we are.
 - 1.It shows the depth of our love. John 13:1
 - 2.It also shows the security of our self-image. John 13:3
 - 3.It reveals hidden details of your character. John 13:4
- B. Humble service draws us into people's lives.
 - 1.It requires us to go where they are. John 13:5
 - 2.It requires us to touch them.
 - 3.It means entering the mess so others can be made clean. 2 Corinthians 5:21
- C. Humble service will produce different reactions in people.
 - 1.Some will misunderstand your service. John 13:6-7
 - 2.Some will reject your service. John 13:8
 - 3.Some may even abuse your service. John 13:9-10
- D. Humble service will produce an opportunity for you to teach truth.
 - 1.Jesus taught them that they should serve one another. John 13:14
 - 2.He also taught that they didn't have the right to refuse to serve. John 13:15-16
 - 3.He taught that happiness and fulfillment come through obedience not through knowledge. John 13:17
