Tweet This - Happy are the Hungry

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be filled.”

Matthew 5:6

I. The Definition: What is hunger and thirst?

What it's not...

What it is...

When we have a genuine hunger and thirst to know Him personally and have an intimate relationship with Him, the natural outgrowth will be obedience.

God has always emphasized intimacy with Him over just obedience.
John 14:15; Ephesians 2:8-10

Christianity is not a religion – it is a relationship.

II. The Application:

There are many things people go after that will not satisfy – the usual suspects are power, pleasure, and prestige... but I want to mention a couple more – a couple that I think are most prevalent in our culture today.

Performance - Ecclesiastes 2:23-24

Possessions - Ecclesiastes 5:10

III. The Satisfaction: What is the key to happiness and satisfaction? Psalms 37:4

What do you need to do?

Recognize your need. Deuteronomy 8:3

Stop eating spiritual junk food. Isaiah 55:2

Start looking to Jesus Christ alone for your satisfaction. John 6:35
