BUILDING BRIDGES #3 - Telling Your Story

Acts 26

I. HE SET ASIDE _____ Acts 26:1-5

- A. So how do we set aside barriers?
 1. We start by being courteous. 1 Peter 3:15
 2. We find the common ground.
 3. Converse back and forth.

II. SHARE YOUR _____ . Acts 26:6-23

- A. He begins by telling where he had been – his early Jewish training.
- B. He then tells how he came to encounter Jesus.
- C. Then he tells of his personal acceptance.

Your story is just that – it is yours and it needs to be personal... but it needs to be told...

III. SEEK A _____ . Acts 26:24-31

- A. Paul told his story in such a way that it called for a response.
- B. Our testimony needs to:
 1. be brief... (Paul's whole story could be told in about 3 minutes.)
 2. include Scripture.
- C. People need to hear the gospel in our stories....
 1. the reality of sin in our own lives...
 2. the fact we could not change ourselves.
 3. the truth that Jesus was and is the only way.
 4. the principle of faith... we put our whole trust in Him.
 5. and our own personal decision to trust Him...
- D. We need to be ready to give some answers primarily about the salvation process.
1 Peter 3:15

Romans Road - Romans 3:10-11; 3:23; 5:8; 6:23; 10:9-13

- E. If a person is ready to make the commitment, you can lead them in a prayer of commitment and then show them the next steps of faith -- being baptized, getting involved in a local church, reading their Bibles, and living a life of trust in God.
